

Jathra Mahotsava as a source of learning

Suttur: Exhibition, Agriculture and Cultural fair were inaugurated here on Friday, in His Holi Presence of Jagadguru Sri Shivarathree Deshikendra Mahaswamiji. The 72nd pontiff of Adichunchanagiri Mahasthana Mutt, Dr. Sri Nirmalanandanatha Swamiji started his speech by remembering the founder of Adichunchangiri Mutt and Suttur Mutt. He told the fair is not only for Bhakthi and Bhajana but also for joy and learning. This fair is suitable to the present world, everybody can learn from it. He preached Akkamahadevi Vachana and quoted Swami Vivekananda "India lives in cottage, India lives in village", which is core aim of Krishimela. Agriculture is the strength of our nation. Earlier the GDP used to be 50% from agricultural sector but now it has come down to 15-20%. Yet the number of farmers have not been declined which is the clear indication of farmers are strength of our country.

JSS is one of the strong institutions in the world to providing selfless service stated by Chinnegowda, President for Karnataka Film Chamber Association.

He expressed his nostalgic views of Suttur Jathra, then he mentioned Anna daasoha and Shikshana daasoha of Suttur and gave credits to Swamiji.

H.S. Somashekar, Merchant from Bangaluru was present along with other dignitaries. He spoke about the current status of farmers in the country. He expressed his worry that the people are migrating from village to cities, leaving their lands empty hence, he requested the people to get inspired by this fair and cultivate their lands and give more agricultural products to the nation.
